

THE AGE 13
MONDAY, MAY 3, 2010

THE ARTS

WHAT'S ON YOUR WEEKLY GUIDE TO THE ARTS

TUESDAY THEATRE

IF YOU'VE seen Oscar Wilde's play The Importance of Being Earnest so many times that you know the script backwards, then it might be time to take in a new interpretation... in French. From Tuesday, the Melbourne French Theatre is presenting its production of Earnest, or I should say L'Importance d'être Constant, in French with English subtitles. It's a fresh look — and sound — for Wilde's witty comedy about imposters and social hypocrisy.

mftinc.org

8pm, Collingwood College Theatre, corner Cromwell Street & McCutcheon Way, Collingwood. $12-$30. Bookings on 9349 2250 or online.

